BOSSA

BULLETIN OF THE ORFF SOCIETY OF SOUTH AFRICA

Chief Chirps >>>

Julie's Jingles...

Welcome to the second edition of our brand new bulletin, BOSSA, as we wind up the first 50 years of the Orff Schulwerk Society of South Africa, and look forward to the next fifty together!

It has been a busy start to the year as many music departments are buzzing with creativity as we start returning to performing, planning, and preparing!

This has been a welcome return for performing arts teachers as we find inspiration and dust off those fun and meaningful music and movement activities. What's fantastic about the Orff approach, is that you are empowered to create, compose, and improvise- an endless source of creativity at your fingertips.

Have a look at our upcoming workshops on page 3, we would love to see you there!

MUSIC GROWS EDUCATION

Music Grows Education has offered a brand new workshop series incorporating the Orff approach with Kodaly and Colourstrings.

Colourstrings, popular amongst Kodaly Educators, is wonderfully integrated into the South African classroom.

The use of the speech rhythms, body music, and barred instruments of the Orff approach works seamlessly with the voice exploration and solfege techniques of Colourstrings.

This workshop series looks at the integration of these two pedagogical approaches in the South African context.

A holistic approach to music education incorporating: The Orff approach by Bronwyn Pieters and the Kodaly approach by Zelda Martin

THE HERITAGE SERIES

The Heritage Series workshops were launched as a way for us to celebrate our culture and diversity. They will be offered throughout South Africa with a variety of presenters and local guest artists who will share their expertise.

Thandi Swartbooi

Our “50 years forward” goal of purposeful collaborations has led us to the community performing artist and activist, Thandi Swartbooi, who will be our guest artist for the Western Cape Heritage Series workshops.

Thandi is an award winning artist with a string of accolades following her every step. Shoprite Checkers woman of the year in 2008, Arts and Culture Trust and Community Builder awards winner in 2006, and founding member of Women Unite SA in 1997, a marimba group formed to challenge the notion that the marimba was a ‘mans instrument’ and that women can achieve anything. Thandi’s love for performing arts is not just in Marimba, but also deeply rooted in music. ‘Thandi Swartbooi Township Dance Academy’ performed at the Tweede Nuwe Jaar in 2019, and you may have seen ‘Thandi Afrobix’ moving to the beat! We are SO excited about this upcoming workshop!
